

22nd to 27 December 2008

All one of the guests invited by Wendy and Nick Parker to share their Christmas with their family at Love Dale House, I would like to express my appreciation for such a great Christmas in a beautiful and welcoming house. Love Dale is the perfect place for a happy time, with its log fires and general ambience of warmth and well-everyone agrees - a fantastic time!

On the eve of Christmas Day we were joined by an uninvited and unexpected guest, who was obviously a friendly "spirit". He or she must have walked through the shell and unlocked the door to go outside, leaving a cold draught behind! Also, during the day some decorations on the mantelpiece fell off, for no apparent reason. A friendly ghost just added to our Christmas joy and excitement!!

What a great year!!

We shared Christmas with Nick and Wendy, family and friends. We thoroughly enjoyed to have our hosts and the company of family and friends; invited or uninvited! - another fantastic time!!
